All training is at St Cuthbert's aquatic centre, opposite the tennis courts.

Important dates:

Please note these in your diaries

Term 3 begins from Monday, 14th July until Friday, 19th September 2025.

- Saturday ONLY 12-1:30pm, begins on Saturday 19th July.
- Sunday ONLY 3:30-5:00pm, begins on Sunday 20th July (Currently at capacity)

There is no training on the Saturday 27th July due to the Tim Sonderer tournament (a school event). With any disruptions to weekend training over the term these have been factored into your term's invoice.

Shooting Clinics

Sunday 9-10 am (U12's only) (additional fees apply). Please email admin@seawolf.co.nz if you'd like to attend these.

Games

Unlike other age groups, U12s don't have weekly games against other clubs as part of Auckland league; we do however run training games as part of the training sessions.

For new or transferring players

Water Polo NZ (WPNZ) Registrations.

To become eligible to play in any tournaments, as well as registering with Sea Wolf, you also need to register with WPNZ (the sport's governing body) using this Registration link. Similarly if you are transferring from another club, you will need to complete WPNZ's Online transfer form.

Tournaments

Tournaments are open to all players who are interested, from newbies to experienced U12 players. Tournament fees are not included in membership or term fee. Tournament fees are separated due to the variable nature of each tournament, and cover the cost of team entry, and coaching, etc. An invite, or expression of interest (EOI) is sent out in advance, with as much information as possible to seek interest from players /parents.

- U12 Festival of Olympic Hopefuls: 25th – 27th October, Hamilton (Labour Weekend)

Accounts

If you have any payment queries, please contact Aisling – packcurator@seawolf.co.nz.

Coaching team

Oliver Gibb (Olly) our head coach / Pack Coach manages and supports all coaching and tournament activities across all grades. When discussing coaching specifics, your team or grade coach should be your first point of contact.

Uniform

Anna Knight, our deputy chairperson, will be sending out details of when she will be at the pool for players to try on uniform and place orders – watch out for those details.
